

In Recognition of National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week

Join us on Wednesday, November 16

from 5:30 - 8pm

First United Methodist Church

350 11th Avenue

Life In and Out of the Alley... A Tapestry of Stories

Learn about employment barriers and opportunities for Longmont's working poor

Light supper served at 5:30pm, with keynote starting at 6pm. Keynote speaker Dave Phillips cofounder of Cincinnati Works and husband of co-author, Lianne Phillips of "Why Don't They Just Get a Job?" which captures their story. Followed by small group discussions with local employees and employers about their experiences and how to apply the principles of the the book in OUR community!

Coordinated by :

LHOT - Longmont Housing
Opportunities Team

Thanks to:

Cincinnati Works
First United Methodist Church
1st Bank of Longmont
Longmont Community Foundation
Longmont Public Library
sivART Graphic Design

Stop by the Library, 409 4th Ave. beginning Nov. 1st and see the display regarding homelessness/poverty as well as extra copies of the book for checkout.