Hymn and Bringing in the Light Gather Us, O God Sing! #45

Welcome Rev. Whitney Janzen-Pankratz

No matter who you are, or where you are on life's journey.
You are welcome here!

Gathering Prayer Rev. Amelia Richardson Dress

Adapted from through the ages by jade kaiser

One: God, you have been with us throughout the ages.
You have bore witness to the ways in which the story of us – of all that has come into being – has been woven together piece by piece, life by life.
Many: We recognize, today, that it is because of those who have gone before us, that we are.
One: Those who have struggled for justice, who have given so that others may live more freely – we would not be, if not for them.
Many: We are because they were. May we remember their stories.
One: We are because of those who have loved us – those who have nurtured us, embraced us, celebrated us, or supported us. In remembrance and gratitude, we name the saints who have shaped our lives and being.
Many: We are because they were. May we remember their stories.
One: We also hold in remembrance those who passed on our faith, who gave us art, gave us song, gave us poetry.
Many: We are because they have been. May we remember their stories.
One: Like us, we know they were imperfect too. There is no life that is not messy and contradictory, often betraying the very justice and love we seek to embody. And yet, you, O God, promise that our labor to Love is never made in vain.
Many: We are because they have been. May live our own stories.
One: Help us to lean on the witness of those who have gone before us, drawing on the love, justice, community, and faith that weaves us together, generation after generation – past, present, and future.
Many: We are because they have been. May live our shared stories.
One: With gratitude and in remembrance we pray, Amen.

Invitation to Communion

One: We share bread today, inviting the companionship of the saints alive and saints resurrected.
Many: We share bread today, inviting the companionship of the poor, marginalized and rejected in our world.
One: We share bread today, inviting the companionship of those known to us and those not known, who need Jesus now.
Many: We share bread today, in companionship with Jesus, God with us.

Lord's Prayer

Our God/Father/Mother in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kin-dom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kin-dom, the power, and the glory
now and for ever. Amen.
